

Margherita Tamplenizza, Ph.D., is a biologist with more than 20 years of experience in the field. She has launched several innovation projects in the field of Life Sciences and Silver Economy. She co-founded the company Tensive in 2012, where she currently is Chief Quality Assurance and Regulatory Affair Officer and Medical Director. She founded the biological section at the Advanced Biomaterial platform of Fondazione Filarete and previously, Margherita has worked in The Interdisciplinary Centre for Nanostructured Materials and Interfaces (CIMaINa) at the University of Milan where she depth her experience on cell-material interaction. She obtained her Ph.D. in Molecular and Cellular Physiology at the University of Milan and the Paracelsus Medical University of Salzburg (Austria), and she also worked at the University of Innsbruck (Austria) and the Italian Institute for Auxology for biomedicine projects. She trained on Manufacturing of Advanced Therapy Medicinal Product and she obtained her Master degree as Qualified Person of Pharmaceutical Laboratories in 2014.